CAMPUS MINISTRY AS AN INTEGRAL DIMENSION OF THE EDUCATIONAL MISSION OF THE CHURCH

The Church's commitment in shaping the future direction of God's people has caused the development of more educational programs. The tremendous growth of student population, far beyond the capabilities of Church schools to handle, has led to Campus Ministry as a response to the need of integrating Christian development.

Campus Ministry is an essential and officially recognized component of the mission of the church, it witnesses to the Gospel of Jesus Christ by teaching and preaching the Word of God and by gathering together the community for worship and service.

(New Catholic Encyclopedia)

Campus Ministry is an officially recognized extension of the basic ministries of the Church constituting a mission handed to her by Christ: ministry of the Word, ministry of worship, and ministry of healing.

At the core of Letran's culture, mission and identity building effort is the internal development of the person in the tradition of the Dominican Philosophy of education and spirituality

Ministry Department embraces the season of Community, the reason of going within and being still, the season of growth and new life, and the season of being in full bloom

The Campus Ministry contributes to the development of the mission and catholic identity of the Colegio “to be passionate for truth and compassionate to humanity”

One of the most effective elements in Pastoral Ministry is the Continuing Formation Program. The Colegio offers Virtual Continuing Formation Program for Students, Personnel, alumni, and partner communities.
